MMFAS Liability Statement

All artwork is entered at the artist's risk. MMFAS will take all reasonable actions to protect the artwork from damage or theft. However, MMFAS and the Train Depot will not assume liability for loss or damage incurred while in possession of the artwork. Artists wishing to ensure their artwork should arrange for private insurance with a reliable carrier. All artwork entered in a show must be picked up on the scheduled pickup date following the show. If artists cannot pick up their art on the scheduled date, they should make arrangements for someone to pick up their art for them. If arrangements have not been made for artwork pick up within 30 days after the scheduled date, the artwork shall become the property of MMFAS, any assigned awards shall be canceled, and monetary awards shall be reabsorbed by the MMFAS treasury.
