March Guest Speaker will be New Haven, Missouri
Muralist Ray Harvey

Ray Harvey is a Missouri muralist known for delivering grand-scale art to Main Streets of small towns since 1990. He has completed more than 600 indoor and outdoor murals, turning blank walls into vivid stories of local history, work, and heritage. He partners with city leaders, nonprofits, and businesses to design images that communities recognize as their own. In towns with limited access to galleries, Harvey's murals function as free, open-air museums welcoming residents and visitors alike, boosting downtown energy, and strengthening civic identity. His footprint is especially strong in Hannibal, where he painted 26 murals earning him the key to the city, and in Concordia, where eight major outdoor works helped the city receive Missouri's official "Patriotic Mural City" designation in 2025. After 35 years, Harvey's legacy is not only the paintings themselves, but the pride and momentum they spark, one wall at a time, making art accessible in everyday life as Missouri's Small Town Muralist.

Ray was recently honored with the 2026 Individual Artist award by the Missouri Arts Council. To see more of Ray's work visit www.rayharveyart.com
